

Swaziland here we come.....

We made it to Germany on the first leg of our journey to Swaziland. It is Wednesday afternoon around 4:00 while it is about 9:00am in Texas. Our trip here went very smoothly. Please pray for the rest of our trip. Pray that flights would be on time, comfortable, and that we will have no problems with our luggage. Everything went great with all of those things in Dallas. A huge thanks goes to Dick Patterson, Matthew Daniel, and our brother-in-law Tom Harp for helping us get to DFW and get all of our bags checked. Also a big thanks to Lamar Cossey and Becky's dad Maurice for helping us get loaded up in Canton.

I will email with my feet in Africa very soon ... thanks for your prayers and support.

I do have one very specific prayer request for our travel. Pray that we would all be able to sleep well on our flight to Jo'burg, but especially for Trey. He has a very hard time sleeping on a plane.

In Christ,
