Re: Update from Africa

We are still doing good. 40/40 is one of those things that really stretches you and even makes you uncomfortable at times but at the end of the day you are glad you have done it. It is very rewarding and we know it is where we are supposed to be, but I will be very happy to see ESPN, Skype, ice, and a hot shower again ... but hey, we are all healthy, the kids have been super, and we have made some great friends.

We are leaving for Petauke and the camp tomorrow so you probably won't hear from us until the 23rd or after. I can't wait to be able to talk and write longer emails to be able to give more details. We have to walk about a mile and a half (one way) to check email and we only have a few minutes before we have to get back to the seminary. It has been nice to have a little communication 'though. We were not expecting any!!!

Thanks for all you are doing with our business matters ... it means the world to us.

I love you and miss you ... tell everyone hello and give them the update.
